

Land Acknowledgement

We Acknowledge the Indigenous people of all the lands that we live on today, including treaty 6 land which St. Andrew's United Church, Lacombe is built on.

Today let us take a moment to acknowledge the importance of the land, which we call home. We do this to reaffirm our commitment and responsibility in improving relationships between nations and to improve our own understanding of all Indigenous people and their cultures.

From coast to coast we acknowledge the ancestral and unseeded territory of all Inuit, Metis, and First Nation that call this Land home.

We acknowledge the harm and mistakes of the past and consider how we are and how each, in our own way is able try to move forward in a spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.
