ANDREW'S Advent

Celebrating our 5th year of Lift Someone Into The Light!

Members of the community were asked to place a picture, a name of someone special, or a special memory into an ornament which they then decorated with bright shiny bits and bobs. These were hung on the tree that had been placed outside of the church. This has become a treasured addition to the City of Lacombe's 'Light up the Night Festival'.

A Season of busyness and blessing!

Reverend Dave Holmes

Advent
2025

A very blessed Advent and Christmas season to all of you!

There is so much going on in this end-of-year season: if the cluttered state of my desk is any indication of my life (or yours) then there are lots of things on the go, none of them completed, a couple of important things that have gotten lost under a pile, the anxious feeling of having kind of lost control of life. Of course, I also need to recognize that an awful lot of what overwhelms me are good things – a healthy active church, positive change, a rich time of worship and service, families gathering, friends gathering, real celebrations...

So my first note to myself, that I'll share in case it resonates with you, too, is to remember to savour this season. May we be present to the good things, with gratitude, and not simply overwhelmed by the tasks. Too busy we may perhaps be – but if we're busy with good things, at least let's enjoy the goodness!

I am aware that this season is hard for some – in fact, it may be all of the above, busy, good, hard, sad, scary... We try to recognize these complexities in our Blue Christmas/Longest Night service on the evening of December 21, and this year our service will include healing prayer, for those who wish it. Thanks to the Healing Pathway for their involvement! But if this season is hard for you, this year or always, remember that it is for you, especially, that Christ is born. The celebrations may leave you cold, but the light shines for those who walk in darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it.

This is also a season of generosity – gifts for family and friends, certainly, but also it's a time when we offer support to various community groups – Santas Anonymous, the Food Bank and Fill-A-Fridge, the Benevolent funds both for our congregation and the FCSS, and the Broom Tree foundation supporting women. Our own church typically rolls into December carrying a deficit, depending on the extra generosity of our own people to meet our expenses and climb back into the black. Our church and our partner organizations are important in this community: sources of inclusion, formation in hope, peace, joy and love, good news for the poor and healing for our society. Thank you for all you do and give, to be a blessing in this place and time. So, in the midst of a messy desk, I am grateful. Grateful for you! And as we lift others into the light, as we sing and worship, as we give to support others and our own ministries, as we bake and gift and celebrate, in our programs, groups, and even in our struggles – may we remember to savour the profound gifts of life and love that this season is all about. Blessed Advent and Christmas!

“The celebration of Advent is possible only to those who are troubled in soul, who know themselves to be poor and imperfect, and who look forward to something greater to come.”
-Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Setting up the Nativity Scene!

Every November members of the Mens Breakfast Club come together for some socializing and fun. They put up the Nativity Scene and lights on the outdoor trees and then go out for a meal. This year they went to Milly Oak after the job was complete.

Lift Someone Into The Light!

A little history: A city in the Netherlands has a celebration known as Joris' Christmas Tree. People gather in the town square to decorate and hang ornaments on a huge Christmas tree. There are other events going on at the same time all around the square. Five years ago, Anneke introduced this idea to a few people with the hope that we could try something like it here at St. Andrew's. We did and 'Lift Someone into the Light' was born.

A huge Thank You goes out to all who helped make this night a success. So many people; our cookies and hot chocolate makers (a definite hit), our servers, our ornament making helpers, our fire minder and our choir such beautiful music. We would also like to thank Doris Thesenvitz for the use of her fire pit for the last 4 years and to Pat and Tom Crozier for gifting us one to use from this point forward.

Thank You to Hans Haeffliger for obtaining our beautiful tree and to the Men's Breakfast crew for installing the Nativity Scene and lighting up the tree and shrubbery around the church. Thank you to Anneke Kassies, once again, for spearheading this project and to Dianna MacLeod, Pat Halberg and Rev. Dave for all of their work in making this such a success.
